Location:

The Esplanade Zagreb Hotel, situated in the heart of this historic city is an art deco icon revered throughout the region and lauded for its impeccable standards of service.

Dating back to 1925, the Esplanade has always been at the heart of Zagreb's social scene and can count presidents, politicians, film and music stars among its many distinguished guests. Its famous Oleander terrace was once described as where "the Balkans end and where civilization begins".

The hotel, reopened in 2004 after a complete renovation, is designed to seamlessly merge the best modern comforts with our art deco tradition.

Zagreb is a blend of the baroque, Austro-Hungarian architecture, art nouveau, deco and contemporary design and has been central to the zeitgeist of style for well over a hundred years.
