

ESPLANADE ZAGREB
LUXURY HOTEL

ŠTRUKLI- Signature dish

A traditional speciality from the Croatian Zagorje (the Region North of Zagreb, on the other side of the Medvednica mountain), born in the hilly landscapes covered in picturesque pastures and plough-fields, claimed it's undisputed as a part of the hotel's culinary offer from the very beginning.

Štrukli were prepared in this hotel for the first time back in 1951, when they became a part of the menu, and the Esplanade hotel kept this tradition ever since. Hence of the hotel and Štrukli cherish a very special, lasting relationship. The idea came from the hotel's chef desire to collect special and verified recipes from various Croatian regions...

Culinary experts recognized the value of national meals and their tradition, as it is most desirable invitation for the guests wanting to enjoy the local delicacies.

In the Art Deco interior of Le Bistro or elegant ambience of Zinfandel's restaurant, the guests are welcomed by pleasant environment, perfect service and friendly personnel that blend the local specialities with those coming from other regions of the world.

Esplanade's delicious Štrukli advanced to the top of the offer thanks to their indisputable quality, the fact they are hand made, and the local tradition, making their way from village kitchens to elite restaurants.

The Štrukli pastry is pressed, filled with a fresh cottage cheese, folded and sorted in thin porcelain plates by hand.
